

Elie Beyrouthy,

Chair of EPIF and
Vice President
European Government
Affairs,
American Express

Elie Beyrouthy is the Chair of EPIF. He is the Vice President of European Government Affairs at American Express since June 2017, where he leads the company's engagement with European Union Institutions and advises senior leaders on EU regulatory and public policy matters. Elie also represents American Express' interests in several EU trade bodies and professional associations.

Prior to joining American Express, Elie was Director of International Regulatory Affairs at Western Union for 5 years. From 2007 to 2012, Elie held leadership positions at the World Savings Banks Institute and the European Banking Federation.

Elie began his career at the European Commission and the United States Federal District Court of Minnesota. He holds two Masters Degrees in Law from the University of Minnesota and from the Jean Moulin University in Lyon – France.