

Hendrik Frank

EU Government
Affairs Manager
American Express

Hendrik Frank is EU Government Affairs Manager at American Express since 2022. In that role, he is responsible for the company's advocacy towards policymakers across the EU institutions in Brussels.

Prior to joining American Express, he was Head of EU Affairs for Deutsche Kreditbank (DKB), leading the online bank's advocacy on EU policy, and was a Member of the Board of Payments Europe.

He started his career in public affairs, working in Brussels and Berlin.

Hendrik graduated in business management from King's College London and holds a Master's degree in public policy from the Hertie School in Berlin.