

José Manuel
Campa

Chairperson,
European Banking
Authority

José Manuel Campa is the chairperson of the European Banking Authority.

Before becoming the chairperson of the EBA, Mr. Campa was Director of Regulatory affairs of the Santander Bank and served as the 10th Secretary of State for Economy of the Spanish government.

He also taught finance at New York University and the IESE Business School and consulted for a number of international organizations including the World Bank, the IMF, the Bank for International Settlements and the European Commission.

Mr. Campa holds a PhD in economics from Harvard University.