

Tara Rice

Head of Secretariat,
Committee on
Payments and Market
Infrastructures

Tara Rice is the Head of Secretariat for the Committee on Payments and Market Infrastructures (CPMI) for the Bank for International Settlements (BIS).

Prior to this, she was a member of secretariat of the Financial Stability Board at Basel and led its work in evaluating the effects of G20 financial regulatory reforms.

From 2008 to 2015, Ms. Rice worked in the U.S. Federal Reserve System, with her last position being as Chief of Global Financial Institutions for the Board of Governors.

She holds a PhD in Finance from Boston College, from which she graduated in 2002 and an M.A in Economics from the American University in Washington.