

EPIF BOARD MEMBER BIOGRAPHY

Konrad Stolarski (PONIP)

Associate Member

Konrad Stolarski

Partner and attorney at law at ftl. Doctor of Laws of the Jagiellonian University of Krakow. For many years active as an associate professor at the Krakow University of Economics and lecturer at numerous other Polish Universities and organizations. Scientific scholar of the Universitat Internacional de Catalunya in Barcelona. Recommended every year in all major international legal rankings, in particular in the banking and finance category of Legal 500 (since 2021) and in Chambers Fintech (since 2021). In the biggest Polish law firm ranking of "Rzeczpospolita" recognized as market leader in the field of FinTech (2022) and recommended in the field of capital markets and regulatory advisory (since 2023).

Legal expert of the Polish Organisation of Non-banking Payment Institutions (PONIP) and foreign and domestic financial and credit institutions. Coordinator of the working group on the digitalisation of corporate banking within the Banking Technology Forum at the Polish Bank Association, as well as a member of the working group on distributed registers and blockchain at the Ministry of Digitalisation, working group on artificial intelligence (GRAI) and Crypto asset group at the FinTech Poland Foundation. Member of the Polish Association of European Law and the Polish Association of New Technologies' Law.

Konrad specialises and practices in the areas of financial market regulation and new technology law, competition law, tax law and anti-money laundering and counter financing of terrorism issues.

He has many years of experience in representing clients before administrative authorities and common and administrative courts, including in cross-border proceedings. He has advised on a number of multi-jurisdictional projects that are simultaneously governed by various national and international legal orders and participated in the legislative process at the stage of drafting key laws for the financial market both at the national and EU level.